Announcements 01-13-08

Today's flowers are given to the Glory of God in honor of Julia Olsoe's 12th birthday by Katelyn, Jenika, Mom, & Dad.

We welcome everyone worshiping with us today! Visitors & members please sign the attendance register; include your address and telephone number before you pass it. Thank you!

Please join us for Second Cup in the church house following today's service. Don't miss this wonderful opportunity for fellowship and enjoy some delectable goodies!

The session and the deacon's will meet at 6:30 p.m. this evening in the church house.

A Beth Moore Bible Study will begin tomorrow, 1/14/08 at 9:30 a.m. at Evelyn Helmly's home. All women are welcome. Ann Boroughs will be facilitating. Don't miss this great opportunity.

The Presbyterian Women will meet Thursday, 1/17/08 at 7 p.m. at 1110 Sweet Hill Rd, Lisa Brown's home. All women are invited.

Make plans to join us next Sunday evening at 6 p.m. at the manse for our covered dish family night supper.

Those of us who had the pleasure of revamping the narthex want to recognize the wonderful talents of George Boroughs, Austin Pool and Scott Bell. We could dream, but these wonderful men made our dreams into reality. I'm sure the entire congregation joins us in stating our appreciation for their hard work.

The downstairs adult Sunday school class, The Disciples, will be starting a new series from Dr. R. C. Sproul on Feb. 3. Entitled Dust to Glory, it is a study of Scripture tracing the progress of redemption from creation to consummation. We welcome anyone who would like to attend.

Your personalized contribution envelopes for 2008 are in the narthex. If you would like personalized envelopes, please email rhpc@coastalnow.net or call Bobbie at 756-2339. You can leave a voicemail. The messages have been cleared and unlike the inn, there is now room in the box. I'm sorry for any inconvenience this might have caused. Thanks Holley!
